

Sally is a member of the National Association of Realtors and the Greater Capital Area Association of Realtors. She serves buyers and sellers in all price ranges and has a strong referral network and repeat business. She attributes this to her thorough knowledge of the Real Estate Market, high level of enthusiasm and integrity, lots of patience, hard work and most importantly a sense of humor.